THESE WALLS MUST FALL

for SATB chorus w/ piano accompaniment

These Walls Must Fall

These walls must fall
Rally to the call
These walls must fall
Rally one and all
These walls must fall
These walls must fall

We have many things to say
A multitude, our river flows on
Voices fill the streets each day
Truth is the only ground to stand on

These walls must fall
Rally to the call
These walls must fall
Rally one and all
These walls must fall
These walls must fall

Uniting every faction
Appealing for the rights we deserve
A movement filled with action
A mosaic strong with iron nerve

These walls must fall
Rally to the call
These walls must fall
Rally one and all
These walls must fall
These walls must fall

When we see oppression cease
We'll know justice, we'll know peace
No justice, no peace, No justice, no peace
This is what Democracy looks like
We, the people, We, the people
This is what Democracy looks like

Susan B. Anthony - Hope is waking
Alice Paul - Dawn is breaking
Elizabeth Cady Stanton - Marching along
Lucy Stone - Up with our song
Ida B. Wells - Hope is waking
Mary Church Terrell - Dawn is breaking
Sojourner Truth - Marching along
Julia Ward Howe - Up with our song

These walls must fall
Rally to the call
These walls must fall
Rally one and all
These walls must fall
These walls must fall

Composer's Notes: The text directly quotes or is influenced by lines from Suffragette rally songs & quotes of Suffragette Movement icons.

"These Walls Must Fall" - The title is from the Suffragette rally song, "The Women's Party Song."

"We have many things to say." - This paraphrases Susan B. Anthony's statement to the court at the end of her trial for voting in the 1872 election:
Judge Hunt asked "Has the prisoner anything to say why sentence shall not be pronounced?"
Susan B. Anthony replied: "Yes, your honor, I have many things to say"

"Truth is the only ground to stand on" - Elizabeth Cady Stanton quote

"the rights we deserve" - Alice Paul quote

"No justice, no peace / This is what Democracy looks like." - This section's text is made up mostly of chants heard in 2020 rallies, marches that were descendants of the protests and civil disobedience of the Suffragettes.

"Alice Paul - Hope is waking / Elizabeth Cady Stanton - Dawn is breaking…" - This call & response section includes the names of iconic Suffragette leaders, as well as lyrics adapted from the Suffragette rally song "The March Of The Women."

The use of multi-disciplinary arts is encouraged. Examples: projected photos of Suffragettes, rights marches, etc... Movement by performers may also enhance performance.

Special thanks to Dean John O'Connell for initiating this commission.
